Employer Registration and Enrollment

Registration.

- (1) On or before the Registration Date, each Employer shall register with the Plan or file a Certificate of Exemption.
- (2) The Registration Date for each Employer shall be as follows:
 - a. An Employer employing 100 or more Employees: November 15, 2017
 - b. An Employer employing at least 10 but no more than 99 Employees: May 15, 2018
 - c. An Employer employing at least 5 but no more than 9 Employees: November 15, 2018
 - d. An Employer employing 4 or fewer Employees: May 15, 2019
- (3) In determining the Number of Employees for purposes of this section, Employers shall use data as submitted on the most recently filed Oregon Quarterly Tax Report (Form OQ): Number of covered workers for Unemployment Insurance (UI). Employers with no Employees reported on Form OQ: Number of covered workers for Unemployment Insurance (UI) will have a Registration Date of May 15, 2019.
- (4) To register with the Plan, a Participating Employer shall use a secure internet portal established by the Plan Administrator to provide information including, but not limited to:
 - a. Employer name and assumed business name, if any;
 - b. Employer Identification Numbers (FEIN and BIN);
 - c. Employer mailing address;
 - d. Name, title, telephone number and email address of an individual designated by the Employer as the Plan’s point of contact;
 - e. Number of Employees; and
 - f. Any other information reasonably required by the Plan for the purposes of administering the Plan.

- (5) New Employers: The Registration Date for an Employer who first employs an Employee after July 1, 2017, shall be the later of:
 - a. the date specified by the process identified in subsection (1) above, or
 - b. 90 days after the Employer first meets the definition of Employer.
- (6) The Initial Enrollment Date for each Participating Employer shall be 60 days after its required Registration Date.
- (7) A Participating Employer who lacks access to the internet may register with the Plan by alternate means established by the Plan Administrator, but no earlier than 30 days in advance of its required Registration Date.

Enrollment. On or before the Initial Enrollment Date, and on or before the Enrollment Date for each subsequently hired Participating Employee, a Participating Employer shall enroll its Participating Employees using the Plan Administrator's secure internet portal or other means of data transmittal specified and validated by the Plan Administrator. For each Participating Employee, the Participating Employer shall provide information including:

- (1) Full legal name;
- (2) Social security number or taxpayer ID number;
- (3) Date of birth;
- (4) Mailing address;
- (5) Work email address, if the Participating Employee has an individual employer-provided and password-protected email account; and
- (6) Any other information reasonably required by the Plan for the purposes of administering the Plan.

Division 15 Employer Exemptions

- (1) An Employer may file a Certificate of Exemption with the Plan by certifying, in a form and manner specified by the Plan, that the Employer offers a Qualified Plan to all of its Employees within 90 days of hire.
- (2) An Employer may file a conditional Certificate of Exemption by certifying, in a form and manner specified by the Plan, that the Employer offers a Qualified Plan to some but not all of its Employees within 90 days of hire. An Employer with a conditional Certificate of Exemption may be required to register with the Plan at a later time.
- (3) To file a Certificate of Exemption, the Employer shall specify:
 - a. the type of Qualified Plan/s offered by the Employer;
 - b. the date the Qualified Plan/s was or were established;
 - c. the Number of Employees employed by the Employer in Oregon;
 - d. if filing a Certificate of Exemption, Employer specifies that all Employees in Oregon are eligible for the Qualified Plan;
 - e. if filing a conditional Certificate of Exemption, Employer specifies that some Employees in Oregon are not eligible for the Qualified Plan for one or more of the following reasons:
 - i. they do not meet the Qualified Plan's eligibility requirements based on hours worked (e.g. part time status); or

- ii. they do not meet the Qualified Plan's eligibility requirements based on minimum age and service requirements (e.g. hire date); or
 - iii. they do not meet the Qualified Plan's eligibility requirements for other reasons.
- (4) A Certificate of Exemption is valid so long as the Employer continues to offer a Qualified Plan to all its employees within 90 days of hire. A conditional Certificate of Exemption is valid for three years. A conditional Certificate of Exemption may be renewed by following a process of recertification to be established by the Plan not later than December 31, 2019.

Division 25
Employee Standard Elections; Changing Elections; Opting Out

- (1) A Participating Employee who has not provided notice as specified in this section shall be enrolled using the following Standard Elections:
- a. Contribution to the Plan at an initial rate of 5% of Wages;
 - b. Auto-escalation at the rate of an additional 1% of Wages each year until 10% is reached, beginning on a date to be specified by the Board;
 - c. Investment of contributions in a "target date fund" (a professionally-managed fund containing a mix of investments that changes asset allocation and risk based on the employee's age and/or projected retirement date); and
 - d. The Plan account will be a Roth IRA and contributions will be on a post-tax basis.
- (2) An Employee who does not wish to enroll using the Standard Elections shall notify the Participating Employer, on a form provided by the Plan and within 30 days of receipt of the informational materials provided by the Participating Employer, that:
- a. The Employee wishes to participate in the plan:
 - i. at an initial contribution rate different from the Standard Elections, which shall be a percentage of Wages expressed as any whole number (i.e. 3% or 6%, but not 4.5%); or
 - ii. at an initial contribution rate consistent with the Standard Elections but without auto-escalation; or
 - iii. at an initial contribution rate different from the Standard Elections and without auto-escalation.
 - b. The Employee does not wish to participate and is opting out of the Plan.
- (3) An Employee who wishes to select an investment option other than that provided by the Standard Elections shall notify the Plan Administrator, in a manner to be specified by the Plan Administrator.
- (4) After enrollment, a Participating Employee may change the Participating Employee's elections by:
- a. notifying the Plan Administrator of a requested change in investment elections, in a manner to be specified by the Plan Administrator, to be effected as soon as administratively possible; or

- b. notifying the Employer of a requested change in contribution elections, using a standard form as provided by the Plan, to be effected on the Employee's payroll following notification or as soon as administratively possible, not to exceed 30 days. Employers may limit the processing of contribution election changes to one change per month.
- (5) An Employee of a Participating Employer who initially opted out of participation in the Plan may become a Participating Employee by requesting participation through their Employer using a standard form as provided by the Plan, to be effected on the Employee's payroll following notification or as soon as administratively possible, not to exceed 30 days.
- (6) If the Participating Employer receives a notice from an Employee pursuant to subsection (2), (4) or (5) of this section, the Participating Employer shall:
- a. Retain the notice in its personnel files for not less than three (3) years, and
 - b. For any Participating Employee, record the Participating Employee's elections in its payroll system in a manner that will enable the Participating Employer to make accurate deductions from the Participating Employee's paycheck.

Division 30 Contributions

- (1) On each payroll date following the Enrollment Date, the Participating Employer shall deduct from the Participating Employee's Wages, consistent with the Employee's elections:
- a. 5% of Wages; or
 - b. if the Participating Employee has elected an initial contribution rate different from the Standard Elections, the percentage of Wages specified by the Participating Employee; or
 - c. the auto-escalated percentage of Wages for that Employee.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), amounts deducted by the Participating Employer pursuant to this section shall not exceed the amount of the Participating Employee's Wages remaining after any higher priority payroll deductions are made by the Participating Employer.
- (3) Amounts deducted by the Participating Employer pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the Plan Administrator, in a format and with such identifying information as shall be specified by the Plan, as soon as administratively possible, not to exceed seven (7) business days from the date of deduction. Failure to transmit the amount as required constitutes an unlawful deduction under ORS 652.610(4).
- (4) On a date to be determined by the Plan and as advised by the Plan Administrator, the Participating Employer shall increase the deduction specified in subsection (1) of this section by an additional 1% of Wages per year until the total deduction has reached 10% of Wages for each Participating Employee who has not opted out of auto-escalation.

Distribution of Materials to Employees

- (1) At least 60 days before the Initial Enrollment Date, the Plan will provide to a Participating Employer a set of informational materials about the Plan. The Plan will provide the materials to the Participating Employer by supplying the internet location where such materials may be downloaded or, upon request of the Employer, will provide the materials in hard copy form.
- (2) The informational materials will include at least the following information:
 - a. The benefits and risks associated with making contributions to the Plan;
 - b. Instructions for making contributions to the Plan, including the Standard Elections applicable if the Participating Employee does not opt for other elections;
 - c. How to opt out of the Plan;
 - d. How to participate in the Plan with a level of contributions other than the Standard Elections;
 - e. The process for withdrawal of retirement savings;

- f. How to obtain additional information about the Plan, including the account fees charged by the Plan;
 - g. That employees seeking financial advice should contact financial advisers, that Participating Employers are not in a position to provide financial advice and that Participating Employers are not liable for decisions Employees make regarding the Plan;
 - h. That the Plan is not an employer-sponsored retirement plan; and
 - i. That the Plan accounts and rate of return are not guaranteed by the state, the Employer, or anyone else; and
 - j. That the Plan provides a Roth IRA, and that employees with income in excess of the Roth IRA limits should opt out of the Plan.
- (3) At least 30 days before the Initial Enrollment Date, the Participating Employer will provide each of its Employees with the informational materials provided by the Plan.
- (4) For subsequently hired Employees, within 30 days of hire, the Participating Employer shall provide the informational materials provided by the Plan.
- (5) Participating Employers shall provide such informational materials either directly, or by supplying the Employee with the internet location where the information may be found, along with Plan-provided instructions about how to obtain the information if the Employee does not have internet access.
- (6) The Employer shall document that the informational materials were given to the Employee, which may consist of a notation in the Employer's records identifying the Employee and the date the materials were distributed. The Employer may request that the Employee acknowledge receipt of the informational materials but shall not request or require that the Employee take any additional steps, including returning any forms to the Employer.

Division 55 Technical Assistance to Employers

The Plan will provide a range of tools and technical assistance for Employer use. Participating Employers shall advise the Plan if they desire technical assistance in completing Plan requirements.

Division 60 Reserved

Division 65 Confidentiality

Confidentiality. Individual account information may be disclosed by the Plan if the Participating Employee to whom the information pertains executes and delivers written consent to the Plan on a form provided by the Plan Administrator.

Written release. Unless otherwise required by the Oregon Public Records Law in ORS Chapter 192, the Plan must receive a signed release from the Participating Employee before the Plan may provide information pertaining to the Participating Employee's account(s), beneficiary designations, distributions, or other information contained in any draft or final court order on record to any person other than the parties to the court order. A written authorization to release information is valid indefinitely, unless a specific end date is provided in the written statement. The Plan will specify the form. Disclosure of aggregated data which does not include information identifying individual Participating Employees may be allowed for purposes of research associated with the Plan.

Subpoena. Unless otherwise required by the Oregon Public Records Law in ORS Chapter 192, a subpoena for information available from the Plan must be made out to the State of Oregon, Oregon Retirement Savings Plan. The Plan reserves the right to object to any subpoena on the grounds that the subpoena fails to provide a reasonable time for preparation and travel, is otherwise unreasonable or oppressive, or that service was improper, in addition to any other basis legally available. To facilitate prompt processing, copies of subpoenas should be served at the Office of the State Treasurer. Faxed subpoenas are not acceptable.
